Hemlington Hall Academy is one of six Primary schools within the Lingfield Education Trust. At Hemlington Hall Academy we have the highest possible aspirations for our staff and pupils and a supportive working culture that focuses on positive learning behaviour and high expectations for all children. We expect all our children to make great progress and develop the skills and personal qualities they will need for the future: happiness is key to success.

Are you an enthusiastic, experienced lunchtime supervisor interested in developing the role to the promotion of Play Leader?

Can you support us in improving Lunchtimes through:

- supporting children of all ages and abilities
- managing difficulties and supporting children's well-being
- improving children's attitudes
- creating stimulating, positive activities
- encouraging positive play and friendships

Can you:

- work as part of a team
- communicate well with children and adults
- think on your feet
- observe behaviour, health and safety guidelines
- promote positivity
- work between 11.55am – 1.05pm week days

Please submit an application expressing your strengths, relevant qualifications / suitability to the post, personal qualities and relevant experience.
