

Draw lines to match the definition to the key words:

Light

- The absence of light

Dark

- Something that makes light

Light source

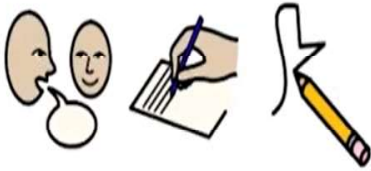

- a type of energy that travels in waves from a light source

Shadow

- when light bounces off an object

Reflection

- forms when an object blocks a source of light

Answer the following questions

1. What is space? •
2. What can you find in space?
3. Where does outer space begin?