

Thursday

'Then a woman in the group reached out and touched the arm of one of the men. She said nothing but looked first at the man and then at Salva. The man nodded and turned to the group. "We will take him with us," he said. Salva looked up quickly. A few in the group were shaking their heads and grumbling. The man shrugged. "He is Dinka," he said, and began walking again.

The old woman gave Salva a bag of peanuts and a gourd for drinking water. He thanked her and said goodbye.'

(Pages 21-22)

The woman that Salva meets in chapter four is brave and caring.

Do you agree with the statement in the speech bubble? Use evidence from the text to support your answer.

Sentence starters (Choose one to help you start your answer!)

I agree with the statement that the woman in chapter four is brave and caring because...

I disagree with the statement that the woman in chapter four is brave and caring because...