

Fair trade chocolate is a kind of chocolate that is made with ingredients that have been grown and sold in a manner that is environmentally sustainable and based on ethical and humane trading practices.

What things do we get from other countries?

What can we offer to other countries?

When have you supported others? e.g. charity