

Year 2 Spelling List
Test Date: 20th September 2018

Over the past two weeks the children have been learning about the /a/ sound and the different ways it can be represented in words.

Not all words fit with the rules, there are exceptions.

'ai' is generally used in the middle of words Spelling	Practise 1	Practise 2
wait
paint
snail
aim complain
'ay' is normally used at the end of words
play
crayon always delay
Sunday
The long /a/ sounds can be represented with a split digraph where the 'a-e' is split by another letter grape
snake
make same
crate		